

Memorandum of Understanding
Memorandum of Understanding for Establishing Scholarly Exchange and Cooperation between
The University of Jordan, Amman, Jordan
and
Lund University, Sweden

Preamble

Both universities express a strong desire to continue the good cooperation, which has characterized the activities that have involved different academic and administrative units in the past.

The MoU is designed as a cooperation framework and serves as an instrument to facilitate the exchange for the benefit of faculty members, students and other personnel of both universities.

Article 1

Cooperation may concern any field, subject or activity upon which the parties specially agree in writing (see below art. 2). It may include various activities, such as:

- Collaborative research, lectures and symposia
- Exchange of scholars and researchers
- Exchange of graduate and postgraduate students
- Exchange of undergraduate students
- Exchange of information and materials in fields which are of interest to both parties.

Article 2

Implementation of exchange or other kinds of cooperation based on this MoU shall be the concern of the relevant academic or administrative units on a case-by-case basis for which a specific plan shall be worked out and agreed upon by both parties.

Article 3

Both universities shall endeavor to set up work programs in order to develop the links of cooperation, and shall jointly, whenever possible, or separately, seek funding for the benefit of realizing these programs.

Article 4

This MoU is valid for a period of four years commencing on the date signed by the last party, and may be renewed after being reviewed and renegotiated by both parties.

This MoU may however be modified or terminated by mutual agreement. If any of the parties wishes to terminate the MoU unilaterally it must send a written notice to this effect to the other party at least three months in advance prior to the desired date of termination. The termination will not affect ongoing activities.

This MoU is written in English in two originals, both of equal validity.

Article 5

The parties will continue to honor the ongoing activities commenced during the previous agreement, which ended on June 30, 2008.
