

THE UNIVERSITY OF JORDAN

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

AGREEMENT FOR RECIPROCAL STUDENT EXCHANGES BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND
COLLEGE PARK, MD, U.S.A.

AND

THE UNIVERSITY OF JORDAN, AMMAN, JORDAN

This Agreement, effective as of the date of last signature below (“Effective Date”), is entered into by and between the University of Maryland (“UMD”), a public agency and instrumentality of the State of Maryland located in College Park, Maryland, USA, and The University of Jordan (“UJ”), a state-supported institution of higher education located in Amman, Jordan.

A. Purpose: The purpose of this Agreement is to enable students from the home institution to enroll in courses and participate in student life, but not to pursue a degree at the host institution. These privileges extend to the nominated and admitted exchange students and not to any family members who may accompany them.

B. Definitions:

1. “Academic year” in the context of UMD spans from late August to the middle of May of the following year. “Academic year” in the context of UJ spans from the middle of September to late May of the following year.
2. “Semester” in the context of UMD refers either to the “Fall Semester,” which commences in late August and ends in the middle of December, or “Spring Semester,” which commences in late January and ends in the middle of May. “Semester” in the context of UJ refers to either the “First Semester”, which commences in the middle of September and ends in the middle of January, or the “Second Semester”, which commences in early February and ends in late May.
3. “Home institution” refers to the higher education institution at which a student is officially enrolled as a degree candidate.
4. “Host institution” refers to the higher education institution that has agreed to receive students from the home institution for one or two semesters as credit-earning, non-degree students.

